

Neil Warner – Big Beat Entertainment

The best thing to come out of Newcastle since Ant and Dec!!!

Neil started his career as an actor and appeared in various shows including Byker Grove and a number of TV shows. He then went on to work in holiday parks and from there developed his solo act.

Neil engages with his audience within seconds of walking on the stage and his warm personality is an instant hit and his "Geordie" banter keeps the crowd entertained all night. He is a natural comedy performer but he also has a strong rounded voice of real quality.

Suitable for all occasions and venues, Neil is a great all round act, who will not disappoint.
