

Simon Phillips – Big Beat Entertainment

“Don’t be fooled by Simon’s easy approach, his performance could only be described as electric, with the audience in the palm of his hand.” A local journalist once quoted in an article about Simon.

With over 25 years’ experience Simon Phillips has become a much sought after performer. He has provided high quality entertainment for cruise lines, major holiday parks as well as clubs around the UK. He has also supported established “star performers” as part of touring casts.

He delivers music from great vocalists such as Barry Manilow, Neil Diamond, Matt Monro and Tom Jones to name a few through to Rat Pack stars and so much more in between. His wide repertoire of 60’s, 70’s and 80’s classics plus Soul, Motown, brassy Swing numbers and bobby-socks and bubblegum hits are guaranteed to get the joint jumping.

Simon’s versatility makes him a “must” for any venue.
