

Simon Rose – Big Beat Entertainment

Former tribute boy band member Simon is now wowing audiences with his solo show.

Having been discovered at the ripe old age of 24, Simon then spent 6 seasons at home and abroad performing with 4bitten. He then decided to break away and Rosie became a solo act. Again performing for 2 years in Mallorca before returning to the UK.

Simon covers all genres of music and is a popular act in all our venues. He is just as happy playing a club as a corporate event and his easy going style appeals to people. Covering all genres of music from the 50's to present day from Swing to Rock and he can adapt his show to his audience.

He is also available as part of the duo Intrigue, with the brilliant Carla Gray.
